ALOYSIUS CLUB TO STAY IN DISTRICT LEAGUE

Prominent Official Brands Story as False-Commissioners Will Stick-Marquette League Holds Record for Runs Scored.

statement that the Aloysius club and the Commissioners will leave the District League and enter the Capital City circuit. This was learned last night from several different officials connected with the league.

While it is admitted that those teams seem to have the call on the others at the present time, the other nines are all fast and will bear watching. The story regarding the dropping of the Congressionals is erroneous, according to M. E. O'Connor, who said: "Nothing has been done regarding the Congressionals, and nothing will be done unless they forfeit again, and then the matter will be investigated. As to this story that my team and the Commissioners will enter the Capital City League, why, there is nothed a leave the congressionals, and nothing will be done unless they forfeit again, and then the matter will be investigated. As to this story that my team and the Commissioners will enter the Capital City League, why, there is nothed a leave the congressionals, and nothing to it. teams are a little weak at present, but they will all be strengthened in the near future, and then the race will be more even; but there is no truth whatever in the story that we will enter the Capital City League."

Secretary A. A. Ormsby, of the District League, when asked if there was any truth in the statement, replied: "To the best of my knowledge there is absolutely nothing to it. Only a wild rugnor that has no foundation. The Aloysius Club practically organized the District League, and from all reports he is setting the league on fire with his litting.

Catholic University yesterday broke their losing streak by defeating Rock Hill College in a stubbornly contested battle, 8 to 7. The game was a rather loosely played one on the Brooklanders' part, although they made up for their many misplays by some sensational fieldbingle in the five innings which he did duty on the slab.

Bolan, who was on the slab for Rock Hill, pitched good ball and would have fared better but for his fatal first inning, when he hit two men and let four men hit him, as a consequence of which five tailles were chalked up for the Brooklanders. After that he kept the hits well scattered, and the Brooklanders were able to score only in the third and fourth innings.

GALLAUDET LOSES BATTISTE.

Indian Pitcher Gut of Game for Remainder of Season.

Hume Le Prince Battiste, the brillant captain of the Gallaudet College baseball team, and one of the greatest all-around athletes ever registered at the Kendall Green College, tendered his resignation to the athletic board of directors, and the same was accepted with deep regret. The Indian leader injured his pitching arm so severely in the Georgetown game Wednesday that the surgeon ordered a month's rest for the injured arm.

Catcher Henry Morris, jr., a senior, from Georgia, was unanimously chosen by the 'varsity Buff and Blue nine to finish the season as captain in Battiste's place. The position of biseball coach was offered the retiring captain, and he accepted it.
